Profile: As a designer, I'm always looking for ways to learn new design techniques from graphic development and, through this, improve my aesthetic and communication skills. I also seek to contribute from other fields of design, such as illustration, as an integral part of my work.

Personal Brand:

This brand was developed due to its versatility in the field of illustration and animation, which I focus on the most.

Illustration and animation

Technics:

- Digital illustration
- Animation 2D

Character design:

Character creation for animation or advertising posters, as well as portrait illustration for any occasion or for couples.
